

Lee Ainley's Blues Storm

Lee Ainley's Blues Storm – a rising force in blues rock.

Fronted by an unusual pairing of mother/daughter, this musical powerhouse brings you original tracks with sounds firmly rooted in blues history.

The unique vocal pairing of Lee Ainley and Tori Mai Hobbs-Ainley showcases tight harmonies wrought from close family bonds and a solid musical pedigree from both the maternal and paternal lines.

Keeping good company with some iconic bands that have shared the limelight with two female lead singers, such as Fleetwood Mac and Jefferson Airplane, Lee and Tori Mai are fearless warriors of music. They delve into the substrata of deep rock with gritty vocals and deliver pure gold. They employ complex and beautiful harmonies that, whilst utterly different, blend together seamlessly.

This band has a supreme skill set which reflects in the polished fullness of the songs.

These are built up with each member delivering their parts as inspiration hits. Lee and Tori Mai provide song writing artistry for this body with the melody, harmonies and life-inspired lyrics. The muscle is layered on by Elliot Young on lead guitar, who has an instinctual understanding of what each song needs to come alive and is not afraid to take what he needs from any genre to make this happen. He gives structure and soulful guitar riffs. The heart starts beating with patriarch Nat on bass and piano. Nat is no stranger to writing stunning songs. Dave on drums provides the rhythm of the heart and builds decoration within the songs that not only lifts them but also gives them colour and breath.

The sum of two vibrant young talents and three mellow experienced veterans make this band able to look to the future as well as back in time.

The band have paid their dues and are now supporting both national as well as international acts including Jack J Hutchinson, Catfish, Eliana Cargnelutti and Eyra Lyytinen. They will also be playing on the same bill with the greats such as Will Wilde, Nine Below Zero and Sugaray Rayford. Also coming up, they will be on the same bill as The Blockheads, Willie and the Bandits and The Animals in Cleethorpes Blues, Rhythm and Rock Festival in June 2020. Continuing on the festival circuit, they will also be appearing at the Hard Rock Hell Blues Great Yarmouth November 2020, which features Joanne Shaw Taylor, Mike Farris and Jo Harman amongst its headliners.

Their new album "EVOLUTION", which was recorded in January 2020 and will be released on 21st February 2020, this will join their growing catalogue of recorded material. This first full album of original material follows on from the successes of their first two EPs, "Shoot Me Down" and "Bankruptcy", which received a phenomenal media response and significant national and international play on UK FM radio stations and other platforms.
